International Foundation for Nigerian Children (IFNC)

April 3, 2003

Hello Ladies & Gentlemen,

On behalf of the International Foundation for Nigerian Children [IFNC], I would like to thank all donors - and potential donors - for keeping our noble goals afloat since 1998.

I would also like to take the opportunity to publicly acknowledge and thank the "movers and shakers" of IFNC. For, without their respective contributions, here and there, some of these projects would have been dead. Well, rest assured - as Nigerians - we all have our faults. But, notwithstanding our respective weaknesses, we've always kept our eyes on the ball.

- (2). Segun Dawodu
- (3). Femi Ojo
- (4). Babs Omotowa

It is a great honor and privilege to work with all the aforementioned gentlemen listed above. I've always felt as if I could call on any of these men. And more importantly, these men have never shied away from their responsibilities.

From day one (February 1998) Imeh Inyang continues to remain the glue that binds us together. He always seems to maintain his collectedness, come rain or shine.

Again, a very special thanks to Babs Omotowa for spearheading most of IFNC projects. His energetic drive and unyielding focus never allowed us to throw in the towel.

Adey Oyenuga.

p.s.: [As an aside, I'd like to extend my gratitude to Magnus Ekwueme for his contributions towards IFNC endeavor].
